

SUMMER 2025 SHOWS STRONG RESULTS FOR FREQUENCY EXCHANGE CORP

For Immediate Release

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA – September 4, 2025 – Frequency Exchange Corp. (“Frequency Exchange” or the “Company”) (TSXV: FREQ, OTC: FRECF) pleased to provide highlights from its summer 2025 activities, including expanded investor interest, strategic global partnerships, and participation in health sector leadership forums.

“We are building a capital-efficient, IP-driven platform for measurable health outcomes,” said Stephen Davis, CEO of Frequency Exchange Corp. “The partnerships and distribution agreements we secured this summer signal growing confidence in the scalability and commercial strength of our frequency-based wellness platform.”

Healthy America 2025

NIKKI was presented at Healthy America 2025, a national gathering of health and wellness leaders, policymakers, and advocates. The Company was invited to participate in the Patient First National Conference, where attendees focused on reshaping the future of health in North America.

“Healthy America 2025 created a valuable forum to showcase NIKKI among key public and private sector stakeholders,” added Davis. “Our engagement in these types of policy-forward events demonstrates that Frequency Exchange is not only technology-led but policy-aware.”

MG Tech Partnership

Frequency Exchange signed an exclusive license agreement with MG Tech to embed NIKKI Wellness Technology into Playflex, a wearable solution designed for athletic performance, in-game communication, and biometric tracking.

Playflex is operated by Melvin Bratton (NFL Agent), Darin Graham (NFL Trainer), and Tandon Doss (Super Bowl Champion), who will join the Company's Advisory Board. They will collaborate with Cam Neely (NHL) and Dr. Keith Pyne (MLB) to support market development in the United States sports sector.

“Integrating NIKKI into Playflex enhances its real-time athletic tracking with personalized wellness programming,” said Davis. “This is a model for embedding our technology into performance environments with measurable need and scale potential.”

Ripple Distribution Partnership

The Company entered into a retail distribution agreement with Ripple, a channel development partner specializing in wellness products. Ripple will support retail growth in North America and international markets through structured sales programs and operational management.

“We are aligning with experienced operators who can scale our wellness offerings through proven sales infrastructure,” noted Davis. “Ripple adds real-world execution strength behind our distribution strategy.”

Private Placement

The Company increased its previously announced non-brokered private placement from CAD $1.5 million to CAD $2.0 million. Funds will be allocated toward expansion of the management and sales teams, technology upgrades, marketing, working capital, and inventory scaling. A portion will also be used to reduce outstanding liabilities and support demand following the expansion of FREmedica's patented technology rights into general wellness applications.

Reviva Middle East Partnership

Frequency Exchange signed a regional distribution agreement with REVIVA, a UAE-based firm specializing in health and lifestyle solutions. NIKKI will become one of the first frequency-based wearable wellness technologies introduced in the Middle East.

REVIVA Founder Ali Nached commented: “NIKKI aligns with the UAE's emphasis on innovation, aesthetic, and evidence-based personal health support.”

“We are seeing early traction in markets where consumers expect innovation and quality,” said Davis. “Our agreement with REVIVA reflects both market interest and our ability to deliver a differentiated technology that meets the demand.”

About Frequency Exchange Corp.

Based in British Columbia, Canada, Frequency Exchange Corp. is publicly traded under the trading symbols TSXV: FREQ; OTC: FRECF (www.FrequencyExchangeCorp.com). Frequency Exchange acquired FREmedica Technologies Inc. in 2022. FREmedica is now a wholly owned and operating subsidiary of Frequency Exchange Corp. FREmedica's business is focused on the development and global commercialization of "NIKKI", a Wellness Technology delivering frequency-enhanced Wellness Programs. NIKKI means "Victor of the People"; bringing wellness programs to all walks of life. FREmedica began with the development of a specialized Lyme support program designed to help people struggling with Lyme disease. Now FREmedica, through NIKKI, delivers Wellness Support Programs to assist with issues including sleep, pain, energy, immunity, sports enhancement and more.

NIKKI delivers Wellness Support Programs with the intent to restore and improve communication in the network of trillions of cells that make up the human body. Strong cell communication is essential to good health. Health can be disrupted by physical, mental and emotional trauma. For example, poor sleep can be a symptom of pain, stress, and fatigue stemming from poor cell communication. NIKKI delivers specific frequencies into the body for the purpose of restoring proper cell function. Categories of Wellness Programs continue to grow. NIKKI Wellness Technology combined with frequency-based Wellness Programs is the result of years of development and experimentation with advanced bioenergetic technology. In third-party quality-of-life testing over an eight-week period, NIKKI proved to provide an unprecedented level of benefits ranging from better sleep and reduced pain to less anxiety and greater energy, with 90% of the test subjects experiencing improvement in overall wellness.
